MEMORANDUM FOR: Office of General Counsel

ATTENTION:

25X1A

SUBJECT:

Secret Service Agreement Concerning Presidential Protection in the United States

1. Reference your memorandum (OGC-68-1561) to the Director of Security, dated 16 August 1968.

2. Your draft of the proposed revision of the Agency agreement with Secret Service on the above subject has been reviewed in this Staff. We concur with the wording of the draft revision except for the last sentence of paragraph 1A, quoted as follows:

"CIA participates in protecting the President and other persons designated in Section 3056 while they are outside the United States by assisting the State Department in performance of its agreement with the Secret Service to provide such protection."

3. It is the Staff position that the quoted sentence should be deleted as serving no purpose in an agreement dealing with protection
"in the United States," and because, as written and without further detailed explanation, the sentence could become a source of confusion in the administration of the agreement. The circumstances, which led to a reference in the original agreement to a contemplated second agreement covering protection outside the United States, are no longer applicable.

4. We have coordinated with the Executive Staff of the Office of Security on the above position.
